Heluo bio

Being appreciated by his colleagues as one of today's most profound teachers and consultants in the field of Oriental Metaphysics, Heluo's deep involvement in a wide variety of traditional Chinese Feng Shui styles, Four Pillars of Destiny and Nine Star Ki allows him a bird's eye view, which greatly helps him to assist students in managing a broad spectrum of applications, misconceptions, soiled teachings and widespread controversies.

Enjoying time between fate readings at Moscow river.

A dedicated student of Oriental Metaphysics since 1973 and full time teacher and consultant since 1979, Heluo has been conducting his ongoing practitioner program Destiny Consultant since 1997. This internationally acclaimed and competitive program offers 4-day master classes in Chinese Feng Shui, Four Pillars of Destiny, Nine Star Ki astrology and 9 Star Star Ki divination in the Netherlands as well as in such countries as Belgium, Brazil, Greece, Poland, Russia.

Heluo is known for his astounding ability to perform personal fate readings and divination in Four Pillars of Destiny and 9 Star Divination. He takes special interest in using his divinatory skill in tracing back missing persons, applying divination regarding unsolved crimes and performing predictions for corporate managers (business strategy, selection of personnel) as well as selecting the right strategies and decisions in any complex matter, be they private or professional.

Otherwise autodidact, he was able to obtain the finest trainings as he traveled the world to obtain hard to come by knowledge from the best masters in their field. Before his full commitment to traditional Feng Shui, he had completed 2 practitioner programs in the Black Hat Tantric Buddhist sect style during 1995-1997.

From age nine onward, and following a sudden intense physical and existential experience of Qi awareness, Heluo has been driven by his preoccupation with existential matters, concerning not only behavior and fate of people, but planetary destination, so that from 1976 onward he engaged into indepth studies concerning Earth Changes, perhaps better known as 2012. At the age of fifteen he could finally no longer bear school because he never had the stomach for any of it and so he went to acquire the knowledge he sensed was not available around him but had been itching within. Having skipped classes as it is to spend full days at the city library and then convinced he was to advance on the warrior-monk tract, he went through great lengths to ensure he was finally dismissed from school, now profoundly taking up on Bushido, studies into Daoism, Zen, Buddhism, macrobiotics, Earth Changes, brain physiology, as well as improving himself in business strategy, management, personal- and military strategy and human sciences such as anthropology, psychology, sociology, transactional analyses, body language, behavioral parasitism, behavioral ecology, face diagnosis, dietary principles, while specializing in human behavior and matters of planetary concern (earth changes, precession of the equinoxes, pole reversal).

Heluo (Roel Hill) has been training the Korean martial art of Taekwondo since 1973, managing his own martial arts center from 1979-1997, his dojo otherwise facilitating trainings in Taijiquan, Xingyiquan, Baguazhang, Aikido, Kendo, Jodo, Kundalini Yoga, Zen and related systems offering students inner development in the warrior-monk plane. He has been an adept of Daoism and Bushido - etiquette and moral conduct of the Warrior.

Nine Star Ki Group

He had the privilege to be training under the guidance of Guus Augustin, Ben Oude Luttikhuis, Louis Pardoel, Louis Vitalis, Henk Meijer, grandmaster Seo Myung Soo, grandmaster Hee IL Cho and he trained many instructors. A Taekwondo contestant himself and semi-finalist at the Taekwondo World Championships in Leicester in 1988, Heluo's students were successful with 12 national and 3 international titles. He was invited to teach budo in De Kosmos Amsterdam, Het Stiltepunt Den Haag, as well as at the renowned Tonny Wagenaar en John Philips sport institutes in Amsterdam.

Besides teaching groups – and through his own developed Zheng Shen Dao – Art of True Spirit – and Course Guidance mentoring program, he has been private coach and mentor to hard drug addicts and psychiatrist patients, as well as minding other dire existential problems, a.o. suicidal tribulations, possession and psychotic arrest. During his time as a martial arts teacher he thus trained nine drug addicts individually all with anticipated outcome, he intensively trained two psychiatrist patients whom both picked up on their independent lives and now live on their own.

As a teacher, Heluo is being appreciated for being approachable and communicative, for his down-to-earth and 'away from hype' approach and for his willingness to give out a tremendous amount of knowledge in very little time, as well as for his ability to take a class on an adventure through time, space and destiny.

Students, seasoned practitioners and his colleagues from the following countries trained with Heluo:

Argentina, Austria, Belgium, Germany, Greece, Indonesia, Ireland, Italy, Israel, Malaysia, Nicaragua, Poland, Romania, Russia, Slovenia, South Africa, Spain, United Arab Emirates, United Kingdom, United States of America. He instructed students in Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Greece, Hong Kong, Poland, Portugal, Russia, United Kingdom and USA, while his own studies took him to learn under masters in Canada, China, France, Germany, Hong Kong, India, Nepal, Taiwan, Tibet, United Kingdom.

He has made several television and magazine appearances and published ongoing columns in China Times and Wah Kiu Newspaper on the subject of Nine Star Ki, Four Pillars of Destiny and Chinese Feng Shui.

He has been only fortunate to have been a senior student to Chinese master Joseph Yu of Toronto since 1997 whom greatly supports him to understand the traditional teachings into fate and destiny. He has earned the Higher Diploma and was granted Master of Feng Shui in 2000 and he continues to study under his shifu in a wide range of topics.

Heluo has been devoting himself to publishing extensive articles and free classes for the www communities he has been member of since 1998.
