Qi studies - more than meets the eye

Once you follow here suggested search terms under 'human behavior', you may feel you ended up on seemingly unrelated websites, e.g. those on biology, ecology and comparable.

However, if you are to follow along, you will gradually build tools to yet unequivocally transfer what you will find to the human plane and gain much deeper appreciation on account of human behavior, human relations, human transactions for example those directed towards self, environment or spouse, while you'd be setting yourself aside from others in the field of health, fate and destiny.
